A. Violation of Dress Code will result in disciplinary action.

A. Groomed Management Professional

The importance of maintaining exquisite standards of grooming cannot be overlooked in the management sector. "Apparel proclaims the man", it is said. Our personality and attitude is reflected in our dressing style and appearance. Each of us is different in personality, physical appearance and background. Yet if we set quality grooming standards and maintain them meticulously, we'll be able to improve our personality and physical appearance.

When we have a neat appearance and appropriate attire, it will not only brighten our career prospects but also make us a role model for others. The way one looks says a lot about the institution where he/she is trained. In order to achieve the best grooming standard for the students of the Marian International Institute of Management, we have laid emphasis on uniforms, accessories, colour, hairstyle, and other details which have been discussed to form guidelines. All the students are expected to be aware of and adhere to these basic guidelines laid down.

B. Gentlemen Look

- Hair must be cut periodically and neatly in a natural style that it does not extend beyond or cover any part of the ears. It must be neatly tapered at the back and on the sides forming a smooth symmetrical appearance. Hair sticking out or over the shirt collar is not acceptable. Putting the hair behind the ears also is not acceptable.
- Dandruff in the hair is to be avoided at all costs.
- Side burns should be neatly trimmed and may be permitted to extend to the middle of the earlobe, following their natural contour.
- Earrings for men are unacceptable.
- Moustaches/French beard must be neatly trimmed.
- Daily morning shave is a must.
- The nails should be closely nipped and should not extend beyond the tip of the finger, Finger nails should be clean and presentable at all time.
